For registered horses to be ridden by Adult, Associate or Junior members. Horse/rider combinations must be eligible for the league in which they are qualifying.Competitors will be permitted to attend any four qualifiers for the Semi-

Finals. Qualifies for: Bronze League Semi Final. Numbers to qualify: • First 3 horse/rider combinations, disregarding those that have already qualified will qualify for the Bronze League Semi Finals. • Riders may only qualify a maximum of four horses from the direct qualifiers and/or the league tables. Should a rider be in qualifying positions with more than four horses from both the direct qualifiers and the league tables, the rider must select which four horses they wish to take to the Semi-Finals and the qualification place will be passed down the line on the league tables. • Only one horse per rider is permitted to compete in the Final. Any rider qualified for other Senior HOYS Final/s cannot compete in the Bronze League Final in the same year (once qualified for another Senior HOYS Final, riders will lose their Bronze League Final place, the place will be passed down to the next highest place combination at the Semi-Final). Should the horse qualify for the Semi Final via a Qualifier, this qualification will take precedence over the League placing. Should a horse qualify with different riders for the Bronze Semi Final – the registered owner at the qualification cut-off date will decide which Semi Final they wish the horse to compete in. The qualification will then go down the line to the next highest placed non-qualified rider at the respective qualifier being declined. The following riders are exempt from the Bronze League Championships direct qualifiers, Semi-Finals and Championships: • No rider will be eligible for the Bronze League Final if they have another horse in the Silver League during the respective league period. Furthermore, riders who accumulate points in the Silver League will be ineligible to participate in the Bronze League Direct Qualifiers/Semi Finals or Championship for one year (the period in which the combination move into the Silver League and the one following this). • Any rider qualified for other Senior HOYS Final/s cannot compete in the Bronze Final in the same year (once qualified for another Senior HOYS final the combination will lose their Bronze Final place) • Any rider that has jumped on a 4* or 5* Nations Cup Team (2003 onwards) is not eligible for the Bronze League Final. • Any riders who have been awarded FEI ranking points within five clear calendar years prior to the year of the Championship Final • Five results at 1.35m within a league period move the horse/rider into the Gold League for three years/six consecutive league periods. • Result/s at 1.40m and above automatically move horse/rider into the Gold League for three years/six consecutive league periods. Please note • Qualified combinations that move into the Silver or Gold League before the Final will not be eligible for the Bronze League Final. Additional rulings apply, those can be accessed via the online Member Handbook found on www.britishshowjumping.co.uk/membership.cfm
